

always nicely! When 'Herb' + Charlie got married, it was not a good thing as she was very young. They lived w/ Charlie's Mom + Dad while she was pregnant as! (my grammie Linn) had a stroke. That summer I stayed and helped Herb take care of her, and we had a lot of good times. Charlie was a butcher (when he wasn't picking a fight at Oscar's Rest) and how they ended up in Manhattan (?) I don't know. Aunt Grace lived there (Charlie's sister) but that didn't last long, and Herb took Timmy home to live w/ your Mom who had David! She had a job at the Kittery Naval yard Commissary / dining hall and wanted me to come down. Wayne was also there, so I went, and that was a houseful! Your Mom + Dad were good to all of us. They rented from John + Daisy Tobey - and of course at that time Charlie Tobey was quite handsome and Herb + I would aggravate him as much as possible green apples at his window - or in - the Clincher was when we hid "his" shoes under a wood pile and ol' John came and told Deanie "his girls had to quit, he Couldn't find his shoes - and he was playing golf! and we weren't home! probably working! so that quieted down. I didn't last but 3 days in the dining area, as my ass - it seemed to get in all those guys way and I was shy. Today - They'd have soap in their hair. So, Herbie + I got a job at The Mariners Rest (I believe) across from Jarvis's. and Herb was never very good at being a waitress. She took the orders, but when they came up, never to the right people and so she + the BIG cook would fight + sling food at each other. So the Boss said honey you are doing good but that friend of yours has to go!
